Selectmen's Meeting

SELECTMEN BEGIN BUDGET CUTS

Starting with their own office, Mattapoisett Selectmen began an item by item review to determine what can be trimmed or eliminated to comply with Proposition 2 1/2. The Selectmen will instruct all town department heads that they are looking toward budgets which have no increase over last year, yet contain provision for a 7% salary increase. It was generally agreed that every alternative for economy would have to be explored to accomplish this. The increase in energy cost is one unknown factor in the equation. The Selectmen discussed the startling 40% increase in one year in the cost of lighting streets which has more than doubled from $16,000 to $28,000 over a two year span. They agreed that the town cannot support this kind of increase and will set up a meeting with the New Bedford Gas & Edison Light Company to discuss how to cut the cost. They will tell the representative that the town has to hold to $20,000 total and ask for suggestions to hold to that figure. It was suggested that future request for street lights be paid by the petitioner.

Veterans' Park at Ned's Point was a major topic of discussion. The $500 tentatively budgeted for the park for the year, they said, could more than be wiped out by one act of vandalism. They mentioned repeated damage to the grass, lighting and toilet facilities which have been costly. Selectman William Hubbard said that should vandalism occur and the money used up then the park would have to be closed at dusk to vehicles and the damaged facility eliminated for the season.

The Tri-Town Parade will be hosted by Mattapoisett this year. Chairman R. William Blasdale asked if it were the time to admit that the town is able to

Crime Watch

"CRIME WATCH" PROGRAM SUCCESSFUL

Chief Walter A. Pierce of the Rochester Police Department has found that the recent "CRIME WATCH" program instituted in his town is proving a successful approach to crime prevention.

The combined use of "OPERATION IDENTIFICATION" and "NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH" has provided various areas of the community with increased security and decreased burglaries.

He reports an increase in phone calls reporting suspicious activity and states that this has assisted his patrolmen in time could prove to be very valuable. Mark your goods with the engraver, inventory the goods with the form provided and announce to the potential burglar that your home is protected by the use of the stickers.

For those members of the Rochester community who have yet to join "CRIME WATCH" now is a good time to take a few minutes to come to the police station (in the fire/police building located at Hartley Road and Pine Street) and pick up an engraver, crime prevention literature and stickers for the windows and doors of your houses.

Get to know your neighbors a little better and set up an informal system of watching each others' houses and property.

MEMORIAL SOUGHT FOR CALVIN R. DAGGETT

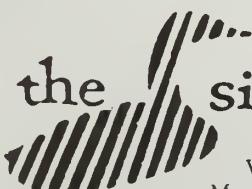

A memorial to Calvin R. Daggett, remembered scout leader and for many years a beloved and influential resident of Rochester, is now approved and contemplated. It is to take the form of a bronze plaque to be dedicated on Memorial Sunday of 1981 and placed in the recently named Calvin R. Daggett Square.

So that those who knew 'Cal' may share in this tribute the plaque is to be paid for by private contribution. As a further memorial, contributions in excess of its cost will be used to establish a scouting fund to promote Rochester scouting.

All contributions will be acknowledged and should be mailed to Mrs. George Leconte, 515 New Bedford Road, Rochester, MA. 02770 or they will be accepted by members of the Memorial Committee. These

Bowling League

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE - JANUARY 27

Everyone was amazed that Bob Smith has been able to continue his phenomenal bowling streak with another fat 458 for Little Marion Golf Course. Herb Snell (342) and Alan Hartley (326) could not profit by taking notes on Smith's success, and watched all three points dribble down the drain for Herb's T.V. Shop. Paul White plowed out a steady 390 to pace the pirate team, the Bowling Stones, to a two point win over the Guaranteed Pest Control. Buzzy Ladner's 363 was the best score for the G.P.C. "Sidewinder" Swift was tops for Sturtevant & Hook with 331 as they went down to defeat at the hands of Philip May's 367, top man for Hartley Saw Mill's two point victory. Noted

"TOP HAT" FILM THIS WEEK IN MARION

"Top Hat", considered to be the best of the Ginger Rogers & Fred Astaire musical comedies, will be shown at Elizabeth Taber Library, Marion, on Wednesday evening, February 11th, at 7:30. The music of Irving Berlin, the superb dancing and fine comic supporting cast make this film a perennial delight, with a universal appeal.

HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES FAIR

The Old Rochester Junior High School Student Affairs Committee and the Freshman Class Officers wish to announce the Second Annual High School Activities Fair. The event offers 8th grade students a chance to meet members of more than forty ORR clubs, sports, activity groups, and curricula program areas in an exhibition format. The event is both a festive and informative part of the high school orientation program.

This year's fair will take place in the Junior High Cafetorium on Thursday, February 5, from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. Parents are welcome and encouraged to visit the Fair during the morning.

In addition, a junior high "Coffee With The Principal" has been scheduled with Mr. Robert C. Gardner for the same morning at 10 a.m. Parents of 8th grade students

HONOR THE HOSTAGES' RETURN

No banner headlines heralded the march of a group of Fairhaven women on January 27 to honor the hostages' return. One of the smallest in number of such events, it did not lack distinction. Most of the 6 marchers were aged between 80 and 90 years, the exception, Mrs. Margery D. Green, director of the Bradford Russell Home, from which the ladies came. Other marchers were Mrs. Isabel Gomes, Mrs. Helene P. Goodwin, Mrs. Dorothy Holland, Mrs. May Lamothe and Mrs. Marion Terry.

Mrs. Holland, an English born United States citizen, headed the parade. She wore a hostage hat she had made from a shower fixture festooned with yellow ribbons.

The marchers sang as they proceeded, visiting the Fairhaven Post Office, the Phoenix Pharmacy, the Millicent Library, and every room in the Fairhaven Town Hall. As the celebrants were on the Town Hall steps a passerby called, "What is this, what's going on?" "It's for the hostages" was the reply. "Great and why isn't everybody doing it?" "Anyway we are", she was answered.

They returned to the Bradford-Russell Home singing "America the Beautiful" and "Tie a Yellow Ribbon 'Round the Old Oak

ACADEMY INTRODUCTION MISSION

The Marion Flotilla 1-607 of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary has begun Project A.I.M. for 1981. Guidance counselors at O.R.R.H.S. and O.C.R.V.H.S. have been given information regarding the program. A.I.M. is designed to acquaint high school juniors with life at the Academy. The student who is selected to participate will join 174 others in August for nearly a week at the Academy, there to live the life of a "SWAB", or freshman.

The U.S. Coast Guard Academy is the

YMCA

LEARN-TO-SWIM PROGRAM

"The best time to start developing good health habits is when one is young. That's one reason why the New Bedford YMCA is offering a special, 4-day Learn-to-Swim program for youngsters between the ages of 6 and 16," Vin Goglia, Youth/Physical Director of the "Y" said. Classes will begin February 17 and continue through February 20. Four classes will be held beginning at 9:00 a.m.

"Swimming is one of the finest of all exercises, bringing into play every important muscle in the body," Mr. Goglia said. "It also has the added advantage of being a sport one can begin at an early age and continue just about all one's life."

In the Y's special Learn-to-Swim program, the young participants will be introduced to the water, taught fundamentals of breathing, floating, swimming strokes and safety practices.

Mr. Goglia pointed out that the classes are open to boys and girls who are not members of the Y. Y members receive swimming lessons all year. The teachers and over-the-counter drugs and alcohol is an area of concern among professionals involved in improving the health of this rapidly growing group. With this in mind, Project S.A.F.E. (Substance Awareness for the El-

Associates, Marion, will speak on "Communications".

Following in-service training much of the education and outreach will have to be done by volunteers. The Marion Center considers volunteers very important people and takes particular care to match each person with his/her interest or area of expertise. The in-service training is at no cost to any volunteer who wishes to increase his/her understanding of the aging process and achieve personal gratification through working with others.

Anyone wishing to volunteer may contact the Volunteer Coordinator, Jackie Avery, at the Center at the following numbers, 748-2850 or 748-2851.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Jane N. Charbonneau, daughter of Norma L. Charbonneau of Mattapoisett, and the late Normand M. Charbonneau, will marry Richard S. Cain, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Cain of Fairhaven, formerly of Marion. Jane is a graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School in Mattapoisett and a recent graduate of Holy Cross College in Worcester, where she majored in political science. She now works for the City of Boston in the Mayor's Office of Communications. Rick is also a graduate of Old Rochester Regional and a 1978 cum laude graduate of St. Michael's College in Winooski, Vermont, where he majored in music education. He is the elementary school band director for the town of Auburn, MA. as well as the bass player for a Worcester local band. An August wedding is being planned.

Pacheco explained the purpose of the committee was to form a coalition of area artists, the business community and local government to support the wealth of arts activities in the area and help broaden the audiences available by inspiring a greater community interest in the arts.

"There is an artistic wealth here that many people don't realize or fully appreciate," Pacheco said. "The arts here are of an exceptional nature and professional character. Given the support and opportunity, they can thrive and grow to an even higher level of achievement."

Pacheco expects the committee to expand its scope to a more regional emphasis in time by encouraging artistic exchanges with surrounding and more distant communities. Invitations have been extended to the various cultural organizations in the area to send a representative to the committee to make their views and needs known.

"We hope these groups will send someone to the committee to represent them so that we can develop comprehensive, quality programs in the arts from the available talents," Pacheco added. "It is a rare opportunity to combine the talents of the arts, the business community and local government to enrich the cultural life in combined groups to make the arts more visible and accessible to the public and a more integral part of the city's life.

"The arts are for everyone, not just a select few," he emphasized. "We want people to get involved, be active. The arts are nothing to be afraid of. The response so far has been good."

He praised media coverage of the arts and called for their continued support in future endeavors.

Currently the committee is trying to establish programming of cultural activities to take place during the summer, possibly in conjunction with the numerous festivals which occur then to showcase area talent. These efforts will be coordinated closely with the Office of Tourism according to Pacheco.

sored by Ocean Spray's Cranberry World Visitors' Center in collaboration with the Pilgrim Society.

According to Anita Franks, Manager of the Visitors' Center, the competition is being held in advance of an exhibit at the Cranberry Gallery this June entitled "The Rock Show". Area artists are invited to submit paintings, prints, or crafts that tie in to the Plymouth Rock theme.

"All works must be original and executed entirely by the entrants," Ms. Franks said. "They must also be available for display throughout the month of June."

Entrants are required to submit slides of completed works by March 16.

There is no entry fee for the juried competition, however, there is a limit of one entry per entrant.

For application forms, write to Anita Franks, Manager, Cranberry World Visitors' Center, Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc., Plymouth, Mass. 02360, or call 747-1000, extension 402.

DISPLACED HOMEMAKER CONFERENCE

A "Displaced Homemaker" is a woman who finds she has lost the income on which she was dependent. The element of choice is gone - she must find work to support herself. The YWCA Displaced Homemaker Program/Center can help such women in defining their needs, skills and interests and helping them to pursue them.

On Friday, February 13, 1981, the YWCA Displaced Homemaker Program will sponsor a conference for displaced homemakers from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., open to all women at no charge.

Ann Petter, former Statewide Coordinator of the Displaced Homemaker Program, will be keynote speaker.

Morning workshops include: Life Changes and Depression, Legal Issues Important to Women, "Superwoman" is Dangerous to Your Mental Health, Coping with Disabilities, Creative Career Development, and Educational and Financial Opportunities.

Afternoon workshops scheduled are: Stress Reduction Techniques, Equal Credit Opportunities for Women, Department of Social Services and You, Why Not?, Values Clarification and Career Decision Making, Home and a Career: Making it Work, and Current Issues in the Women's Movement.

Business Opportunity

We can't control inflation; rising fuel and electric bills; the high cost of food! However, we can offer you an opportunity to be self-employed on a part-time basis to help meet these ever rising expenses. This opportunity is especially good for older people on fixed incomes. GET THE WHOLE STORY at no obligation. Call J & J Lees at 758-2075 for an appointment.

Hubbard, Acting Site Director of the Educational Opportunity Center, is planned, as well as an Open Forum discussion.

If you, or someone you know, are one of these "displaced homemakers", stop by the YW that Friday. Knowing that you are not alone could make the difference in your life.

PARENTS OF SON

Frank and Kathleen Webb of 46 Main Street, Mattapoisett are the parents of a son, Robert Lucas Webb, 6 pounds, 6 ounces, born January 27th at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford. Grandparents are Kit and Bob Wood of Mattapoisett and great grandmother is Mrs. W. O. Wood of New Bedford.

Every Sawyer garment is individually hand-crafted by skilled artisans who take enormous pride in their ability ... Sawyer garments are comfortable, warm, odorless. They will not rainspot and, no matter how wet they get, will look like new after air-drying and brushing. Colors are colorfast - surface soil can be removed by careful application of fine sandpaper or gum eraser. (Also dry-cleanable.)
